

Issue 5 | Autumn 2006 | £3.95

homes abroad

Your practical guide to buying property overseas

the best advice on buying property abroad

Investment hot spots

Follow the airlines and make a mint

- ▶ Golf resorts
Tee off from your garden
- ▶ Dominican Republic
Caribbean dreams at low prices

PLUS...

- How much it will cost ▶
- Find your dream property ▶
- How to get a mortgage ▶
- Tax issues ▶

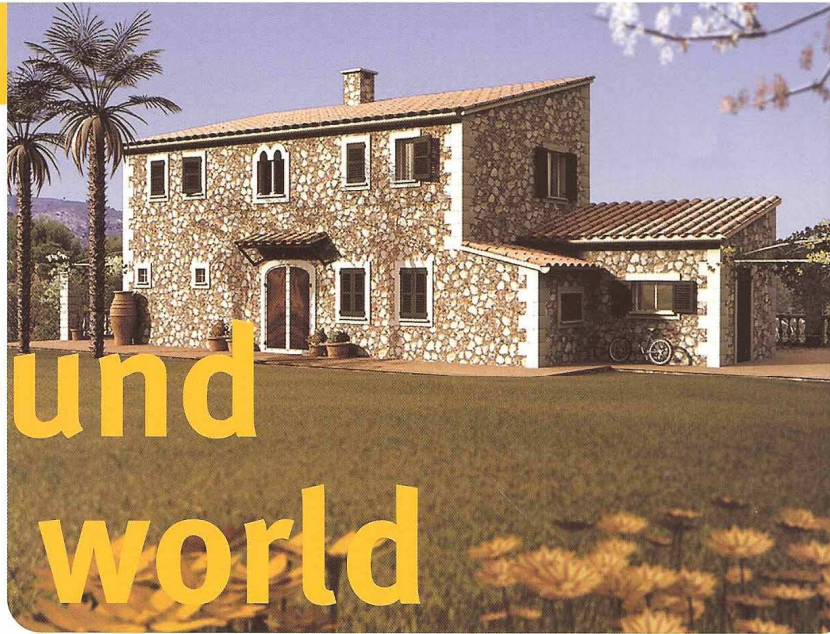

AND:

warsaw ▶ cyprus ▶ spain ▶ egypt ▶ france
around the world ▶ money saving tips ▶ timeshare properties

Publication: Homes Abroad
Subject: Buying overseas property
Circulation: Uncertified
Date: October 2006
Source: Coverage arranged by Wide PR

property bargains

Around the world

There are tens of thousands of properties out there, with sellers looking for British buyers. Depending on your budget you can get a dream home almost anywhere in the world

⇐↑ Baosici Village, Montenegro
Baosici Village is a self-contained apartment complex of 30 two-bedroom apartments, each with a sea view, set in traditional Mediterranean low-rise buildings within a gated community, 100m from the sea. At the centre of Baosici Village is a large raised terrace and garden, featuring a swimming pool with stunning views of the sea and a small café.

Price: €138-155,000 (£94-105,000 approx)

Contact: 020 7870 3942
www.plutodevelopments.com